ULTIMATE SUPER BOWL SURVIVAL GUIDE

Big Apple chowder rules

CHOWDER FACT!

You know that Eli Manning is a fan of "Seinfeld," but did you know that Soupman Al Yeganeh offered to send soup to the team?

Due to training diets, the players were unable to accept, but Al is still a big fan. As a show of support, all eight New York City Soupman locations will serve Manhattan clam chowder on Sunday. By the way, Al is so certain we do it better in New York that he challenges any Boston soupmaker to a clam chowder-off after the big game.

All local Soupman outposts will be ladling out the Manhattan clam chowder come Sunday.
